

Shira Raymond

The Conscious Growth Speaker

Professional BIO

Shira Raymond was born New York and raised in Southern California and currently resides in Phoenix, Arizona with her husband Yonatan of 24 years. They have three amazing adult children Asher 22, Natalie 20 and Bruriah 18. She graduated from the Southwest Institute of Healing Art in Mind, Body Transformational Psychology and holds certifications in Clinical Hypnotherapy, Life coaching, NLP, Time-Line Therapy® Instant Miracle Technique and The Peace Process.

Though her own life struggles in her upbringing, Shira Raymond became obsessed with Self-Help and Personal Development in her mid-twenties. She realized after getting married and having children of her own, that the way we learn to communicate and raise our children is based on what we learned at home growing up. This was a pivotal point for Shira as she realized that she is not alone and that many people grew up with some form of dysfunction which affects their inner personal relationships. Shira Raymond made it her personal mission and began a quest to hire several coaches and mentors on the topics of Personal Growth, Mindset Mastery and Law of Attraction. As a women, she understood that it her duty to help women of all ages to create a positive loving relationship with themselves and show them how to master their own mindset and emotions so that they can profoundly change every aspect of their lives.

Today, Shira Raymond coaches success business women and women entrepreneurs and from all walks of life, showing them the secrets that linger behind living with gratitude, how to shift and own their emotional intelligence and how to recognize their own inherent power to transform and live a happier, fulfilling life with no regrets. Her coaching focuses on the connection of mind, body & spirit as they are all necessary for personal development.
